Two sets of triple arms combine to deliver smooth movement and unbeatable stability. The ease of motion makes this mount ideal for media walls and any location where the screen will be regularly moved around. Gives you full control of the screen's position with turn adjustment (-/+65°) and tilt adjustment (-/+15°). The extended length arms bring the TV out further for more viewing options, then smoothly push back against the wall. Features concave shaped arms for additional strength and includes a spirit level for accurate installation. NEO cushioned pads protect the TV from scratches and provide insulation for improved audio. Compatible with VESA sizes 100x100 - 600x400mm.
